ITALIAN DUKE TO COLONIZE FLORIDA

(Special from United Press.)
Rome, May 14--The Duke Di Litta to-day brought an Italian inspector of emigration to his big estate on the Manatee river in Florida to study the economic and hygienic conditions with reference to the proposed colonization there of 5,000 earthquake sufferers. The duke made his offer to the government shortly after the earthquake that devastated Messina and Reggio. He owns great tracts of land in southwest Florida which he proposes to permit quake victims to farm on shares.

DIVORCE GRANTED BY A RABBI NOT VALID

New Haven, May 14--In the Superior Court here Judge Shumway has handed down a decision in which he refused to make valid a divorce granted by a rabbi, thus denying a decree to Aaron Shanbrom, treasurer of the People's Ice Company and treasurer of the Lapides Shanbrom Company of this city. Mrs. Shanbrom is in New-Haven, N. J., at present and desertion was alleged.

They were married January 15, 1893. Mrs. Shanbrom's maiden name was Mary Suckerbrod. They had one son. Several years ago a rabbi in New Jersey granted them a separation according to the Jewish law, with permission for both to remarry. Neither did so.

Judge Shumway's decision is based on the ground that they had agreed to separate by the decree of the rabbi. The law courts do not recognize the divorce granted by the rabbi, but do recognize the validity of the agreement to live apart.

NEGRO APPOINTED DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Pittsburg, May 14--Mayor William A. Magee has appointed William Randolph, a negro, as Assistant District Attorney, and no appointment in years has caused so much comment. The Mayor has received numerous messages urging him not to make such a choice.

Some time ago a delegation of negroes called on the Mayor and asserted that unless they got some good offices the colored people of Pittsburg would form themselves into an independent party.

The appointment of Frank A. Pickarski, famous football player of the University of Pennsylvania, as an Assistant District Attorney is also announced.
